Numb. 4075

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday November 27. to Thursday November 30. 1704.

St. James's, Nov. 29. The following Addreſs from the Iſland of Jerſey was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Charles Carteret Bar. Bayliff of the ſaid Iſland.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey.

MADAM,

BEing more particularly concern'd by our Situation near the Enemy, we have the greater Reaſon to give our moſt humble Thanks to God Almighty, and heartily Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the glorious Succeſs over Your Enemies, under the wiſe Conduct of that valiant Captain-General of Your Majeſty's Forces, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; and by the Advantage obtain'd under the Command of Sir George Rooke by Your Majeſty's Fleet at Gibraltar, and over the joyn'd Naval Power of France, tho' conſiderably ſuperior in Force.

We cannot but attribute thoſe extraordinary Advantages to the Bleſſing of God, as a Reward for Your Majeſty's great and known Piety, Wiſdom and Conduct.

That God Almighty would long continue Your Majeſty an Inſtrument of his Glory, for the Good of his Church and People, is the daily and fervent Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cardigan was preſented by Sir Humphry Mackworth, Repreſentative in Parliament of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Cardigan.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THO' by Reaſon of our Diſtance from Your Royal Court, we could not wait on Your Majeſty as early as ſome others of Your Subjects that are more happily ſituated, yet we preſume to hope, that we do not now come too late to Congratulate Your Majeſty for the glorious Advantages and Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Forces in this laſt Campaign, both by Sea and Land. To mention all the Benefits Your Subjects have felt in ſo ſhort a time, ſince Your happy Acceſſion to the Throne, would be a Subject for a Panegyrick inſtead of an Addreſs; and yet, in Gratitude, we cannot forbear to touch upon a few of them, that we have been moſt ſenſible of, and for which we ought to render unto Your Majeſty our moſt dutiful Thanks: By You, our drooping Church has been able to lift up its Head, not only by the Encouragement You give to the ſound Members of it, but alſo by Your generous and pious Bounty towards the Support of the Indigent part of it, which can be wanted no where more than in this part of Your Majeſty's Dominions: By You, the neceſſary Funds granted You, joined with a conſiderable Sum of Your own Money, have been altogether applied to the Publick Service, and to the Uſes intended: By You, the Publick Debts are leſſened; and the Publick Credit, which was very much ſunk, advanced: By theſe, and many more good Actions, You have brought down the Favour of Heaven upon You; by which Your Royal Heart has been inſpired to make Choice of ſuch worthy and brave Commanders, as have retrieved the Honour of England, and made Your proud and victorious Enemies to fly before You; which gives us ſome glimps of Hopes that, finally by You, we ſhall enjoy the only Bleſſing that is now wanting to us, and which all Your good Subjects muſt needs long for, as well as we, viz. an honourable Peace upon a laſting Foundation; which, that You may be able to bring about, and that You may live long to enjoy the Fruits of Your own Labour, are the hearty Prayers of, Madam, Your moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Petersfield was preſented by Leonard Bilſon Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Magiſtrates of the Borough of Peterſfield, in the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THO' we come in the Rear of Addreſſors, yet we are not behind any in Duty, and Affection: Permit us therefore, moſt Royal Princeſs, to Congratulate the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Forces both by Sea and Land, but more particularly, for that ſignal Victory obtain'd by Your Majeſty's and the Confederate Arms, under the Command of Your moſt Eminent General John Duke of Marlborough.

May the Eternal God, that gives Victory to Princes, and cauſeth War to ceaſe, make Your Sacred Majeſty Inſtrumental to pull down the Pride of that haughty Monarch, that hath ſo often been ſtiled Invincible.

We further crave Leave to pay our Tribute of Thanks for Your Majeſty's prudent Governing both the Church and State: Your good Example in promoting Religion, Piety and Charity, is a Glory to the Crown, and will Embelliſh the Hiſtory of Your Sacred Life to future Ages, and juſtly give Your Auguſt Majeſty the Title of Moſt Chriſtian Defender of the Faith; and after a long and proſperous Reign over us, may the Almighty Jehovah give You an Inheritance in his Heavenly Kingdom; ſhall be the earneſt and conſtant Prayers of us, Your moſt Loyal, Dutiful and Obedient Subjects. To which we have affixed our Common Seal, this 22d Day of November, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign. Annoq; Domini 1704.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Boraliton was preſented by William Cowper and Peter King Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Free Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Boraliton in the County of Devon.

MAY it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, to condeſcend to our dutiful Congratulating Your Majeſty, for the never to be forgotten Victories obtained, thro' the Bleſſing of God, by Your Forces, and thoſe of Your Allies, commanded by the Duke of Marlborough.

Such Victories, over ſo Powerful an Oppreſſor, no leſs formidable for inglorious Methods to attain his Ends, than for his veſt Armies, ſo oft accuſtomed by ſuch Means to prevail, carry the Evidences of the Almighty's owning Your Righteous Undertakings. They ſpeak likewiſe the Diligence, Fidelity and true Conduct, of Your great General, whoſe Qualifications for ſo high a Truſt, and faithful Exerciſe of them, ſo juſtly entitle him to Your Majeſty's Royal Favour.

We adore that Goodneſs which gives Your Arms ſuch Succeſſes, and have Hearts full with Joy, beyond Expreſſion, that we are Subjects to ſuch a Queen and Governor, whoſe Actions are all weighed in the Ballances of Judgment and Piety.

Your proſecuting the War with Vigour, to reſtore the Liberties of Europe, proclaim the tendereſt Regards for thoſe of Your own People: And Your Exemplary Care for the Churches within Your happy Dominions, renders You the Conſolation of the reſt of the Reformed, as if deſigned by Heaven to introduce a Bleſſing in common to all Mankind.

May Your Majeſty long rejoice in the having ſettled a laſting Peace abroad, and the ſeeing Your own People at Eaſe with another at home: May You Reign to fulneſs of Days; have in all Things the Glory, but never feel the Weight of a Crown.

The Two following Addreſſes being tranſmitted from Ireland, were preſented by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Heages.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty, of the City of Corke.

MAY it pleaſe Your Majeſty, to permit Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly to approach the Throne, with their moſt ſincere Congratulation for the glorious Succeſs wherewith God hath bleſſed Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Command and Conduct of Your great and victorious General the Duke of Marlborough, whoſe Name is truly loved and honoured by all that deſire the Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Religion in theſe Kingdoms, and the Reaudion of the Power of France; and will always, in a peculiar manner, be dear to us of this City, whom he formerly reſcued and delivered from the Inſults of Iriſh Rebels, as he hath lately done the Empire from the Outrages of France and Inteſtine Enemies.

May the Bleſſings of Heaven be ſhower'd down on Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and on all Your Subjects, in the long Continuance of the Auſpicious Reign of the beſt of Queens over them: May every Year of it produce Succeſſes equal to the laſt, till the greateſt of Bleſſings, Peace, (a ſafe and honourable Peace) renders it Your Majeſty's Choice to ſtop the Courſe of Your Victorious Arms. And for the Attainment of theſe ineſtimable Benefits, may all other Your Majeſty's Subjects, in their ſeveral Stations, like Your General, aim at, and contribute to the Promotion of the Glory and Happineſs of Your Majeſty's Government, and the Good of all Your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourth Day of November, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

To Her moſt Excellent and Sacred Majeſty, ANNE, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Common Council, of Your Majeſty's Town and County of Your Town of Gallway, in Your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AMong the Crowd of Addreſſors, we, tho' inferior in Splendour and Riches to other Your Majeſty's Cities and great Towns, humbly take Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, none is ſuperior in Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service, in glorifying God for the late Victories both by Sea and
